

Daniel Hauben, a landscape artist whose paintings capture the essence of life in the Bronx, gives his time and talent to clients of VIP. Mr. Hauben spends several hours a week at VIP sketching portraits of clients. Those who model for Mr. Hauben enjoy the personal attention and the informal conversation. VIP is planning to display the portraits at a community event in the fall.

