The Bronx County Historical Society, founded in 1955, is a private, non-profit educational and cultural institution chartered by the New York State Board of Regents. The Society is dedicated to the collection, preservation, documentation and interpretation of the history and heritage of The Bronx and its people from its earliest historical references in the 17th century to the present. The Society disseminates information by utilizing its collections in exhibitions, historical research, production of publications and documentaries, educational and cultural programming, the operation of our research library, The Bronx County Archives and two historic landmark house museums - the c.1812 Edgar Allan Poe Cottage and the c.1758 fieldstone farmhouse Valentine-Varian House/Museum of Bronx History.

The headquarters of The Society is located at 3309 Bainbridge Avenue, The Bronx, New York 10467. This newsletter is published three times a year as a service to members and friends.

The Bronx County Historical Society is partially supported through funds and services provided by the NYC Departments of Cultural Affairs and Parks and Recreation, the Historic House Trust of New York City, The Bronx City Council Delegation, the Office of the President of the Borough of The Bronx, the Bronx Delegations of the NYS Assembly and NYS Senate, the H.W. Wilson Foundation, the Astor Fund, the Carnegie Foundation, the Lucius N. Littauer Foundation, The New York Times Foundation, the Verizon Foundation, the New Yankee Stadium Community Benefit Fund, the New York Public Library, the NYS Library, and The Bronx Chamber of Commerce.

Today's Bronx Scenes

The Bronx is beautiful – so much so that it deserves to be on canvas. And what better artist to undertake such a task than our very own, Daniel Hauben. Born in The Bronx, Hauben uses his artistic talent to illustrate today's Bronx scenes with grand detail and vibrant colors - elements that describe the present ambiance of our great borough. Using his exquisite plein air (French for outdoor painting) form of painting, Hauben executes his work on location and sharply captures the true essence of Bronx life at a stroke of a paintbrush. Yet, The Bronx is not the only subject matter Hauben puts on canvas. His work covers many locations around the world and can be found in the collections of The White House, The Library of Congress, Harvard University, and more. We salute Daniel Hauben for his great works of art, and for painting The Bronx beautifully.
